Compiled Summer Holiday Homework

The much awaited summer break is here. It is perhaps the happiest period in a student's life when he/she can relax and enjoy with everyone. Keeping with the vacation spirit, the Holiday Homework is designed in a manner that children learn different things creatively while having a hands on experience. It is also a way of keeping the children busy for some part of the day.

ENGLISH

'Reading is to the mind what exercise is to the body.'

Here are a few suggested readings that will provide you an escape from your busy schedule, enable you to explore the world of fairies, giants, pirates, detectives, superheroes, etc. and at the same time, will help you enhance your vocabulary skills.

- Heidi by Johanna Spyri
- Treasure Island by Robert Louis Stevenson
- The Enchanted Wood by Enid Blyton

1. Write a Book Report about any one of the books mentioned above and do as directed.

- Make a colourful book cover
- Author's name and picture
- About major characters in five sentences
- Summary of the book in 150 words
- A collage of pictures from the book

(Do these in A4 size sheets and staple them)

2. Vocabulary Enhancement

Words enhance our creative expressions and communication skills. Pull up your socks and create your own vocabulary handbook. Write any 10-15 new words with their meanings from the books you enjoyed reading in the summer break and create your own vocabulary handbook. (Don't forget to add colourful illustrations.) Make it of a small size as that of a pocket dictionary.
